Bids for the construction of two miles of the Frankfort, St. John's and Jacksonville Turnpike will be received until the first day of September. Plans and specifications can be seen on application to Mr. F. P. Lewis, in Belle Point, with whom bids may be left.

The Henry County Local of this Hon. week publishes a letter written by Henry Clay on the 3d of July, 1844, when he was a candidate for President, to Mr. Thos. Rodman and others in response to an invitation to attend an old-fashioned barbecue given by the Whigs of Henry county in New Castle.

Grand Patriarch R. G. Elliott, of Lexington, accompanied by twelve Patriarchs from that city, came down Wednesday evening and organized a Degree Encampment of Odd Fellows in this city. Great interest is manifest just now in the higher degrees of Odd Fellowship among our citizens, and Oriental Encampment is kept busy conferring degrees. About thirty of the Patriarchs have uniformed themselves and drill once or twice a week.

The new organization was named Berry Degree Camp, No. 6, in honor of Mr. Hiram Berry, of this city, and the following gentlemen elected as officers:

J. R. Williams, Commander.
Albert Chilson, Vice Commander.
W. S. Dehoney, Secretary.
N. F. Richardson, Treasurer.
Gus Shaefer, Officer of Guard.
C. A. Nelson, Plectet.
D. H. Pifer, Standard Bearer.
Sam J. Shee, Right Standard Bearer.
Lee A. Owens, Left Standard Bearer.
Geo. W. Rock, Gunner of Tent.

Capt. D. A. Murphy, the retiring Superintendent of the Government building in this city, has forwarded the following letter to the supervising architect of the U. S. Treasury Department. Every citizen will endorse every word of it, and will thank Capt. Murphy for this and his past efforts to secure the early completion of the building.

Office of U. S. COURT-HOUSE AND POST-OFFICE BUILDING,
FRANKFORT, KY., August 20th, 1885.

Hon. M. E. Bell, Supervising Architect, U. S. Treasury Department

Sir:—The citizens of Frankfort are exceedingly anxious that the superintendence shall be given to the architect who has finished and furnished, within the next four months. The Legislature of Kentucky will meet at Frankfort on December 31st, 1885, and the building should be completed if possible, and the Post-office moved into it the week before that. In view of the fact that the building is in all stories; the plumber and assistant are hard at work, and the hot water heating apparatus is being fixed in position. The contracts for the inside carpenter work and for tile, tiling, and metal work, grates, if awarded to any other contractor. All of this can be done; it ought to be done; and therefore, I trust it will be done.

Very respectfully,
DAVID A. MURPHY, Sup't.

Persons having houses to rent would do well to call at this office and let it be known. We now have two applications for houses from two good tenants.

The pump on Main street, in front of L. B. Marshall's, has received some much needed attention. The seepage from the gutter has been shut out, the wall cemented, and it is now probable that those of us in the centre of the city who have to send several squares for drinking water can get a bucket full nearer home occasionally.

Miss Katie Putnam, the greatest favorite of our amusement loving public, will visit this city again on Friday night, the 28th inst., and make her appearance at the Opera House, supported by a first-class company. The play for night is not yet announced but will be in the best pieces. Secure your seats at Barretts, for there will be a crowded house.

Miss Lizzie Evans had a fair audience at the Opera House Tuesday to witness the rendition of Florette, the Fern Vender. She was the same bright little figure of two years ago, and delighted the audience by her acting. Her support was very good, but the intervals between the acts were so long that the audience became weary before the play was half over. She certainly should have crowded houses.

Some workmen engaged in repairing the county road near the mouth of Glens Creek last week, unearthed an Indian pipe which was buried some five or six feet beneath the original surface of the ground. It is made of red sandstone, of the kind most highly prized by the Indians, is remarkably well preserved, and is a smooth and pretty piece of work. Judge R. A. Thompson has secured it for his collection of curiosities at the Court-house.

The Spring Hill Gun Club were again defeated by the Lexington Club in that city Tuesday, by the close score of 240 to 233. The targets used were clay pigeons. Following is the score:

Crosses Man in Alabama "

"Deepest man in Alabama liver'd," said the driver as we approached a wayside home, near Selma, Ala., to ask directions. "The man's right eye is swollen and after it, "muh," he scowled at every one, found fault with every thing earthly, and I was wondering if he would not growl if the heavenly halo didn't fit him when incidental mention being made of the comet of 1882, he said: "I didn't like it, but it's tall should have been fat shaped!"

But, next morning, he appeared half-offended at our offering to pay for his hospitality. My companion, however, made him accept a present a sample from his case of goods. Six weeks later we passed up at the same wayside post office, and he was lighter from the porch, and greeted me cordially. I could scarcely believe that this clear complexion, bright-eyed, amiable fellow, and the morose being of a few weeks back, were the same. He inquired after my companion of the former visit and regretted that he had not been there. "Yes," I said, "my wife, 'we are both much indebted to him,' "How?" I asked, in surprise. "For this wonderful change in my husband. Your friend, when leaving, handed him a bottle of Warner's safe cure. He took it, and two other bottles, and now—'And now,' he broke in, from an ill-tempered, growling old bear, I am mighty and cheerful my wife declares she has fallen in love with me again!"

It has gone over again a thousand love matches, and keepsweet the tempers of the family circle everywhere—Copyrighted. Used by permission of American Rural Home. Aug. 22-91

Testimony of Judge C. F. Lynch.

I was a sufferer for twenty years with tetter, covering my entire person. It was exceedingly painful and annoying. I tried every known remedy within my power to no particular profit. My health became unbroken. The doctors could help me, but could not cure me, and under the old time treatment the disease continued to grow worse and the itching became almost unbearable. I read the statement of Mr. Lewis's Le a to what Swift's Specific had done for him, and tried it, and to my surprise that it might help me. I commenced its use the sores have all dried up, and the skin of my body has smoothed off and I am in better health than I ever was, and there is not a vestige of the disease left, save a few spots on one of my hands, and they are rapidly disappearing. Swift's Specific is the greatest medicine in the world. It has brought me relief after twenty years of suffering. It is the best blood purifier I have ever used, and most cheerfully command it to the suffering.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS,
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, AUGUST 22, 1885.

We suppose our city will be overrun with excursionists to-morrow. An excursion train will be run from Newport over the Short-Line and the regular Sunday train will bring up a large number from Louisville.

There is great complaint about the new Court House bell. Its voice is so very weak that the striking of the town clock can hardly be heard on the South Side of the river. To succeed the old bell, which had a magnificently clear tone, it should certainly have been selected with a view to being heard at a great distance. When cold weather comes and the houses are closed up it will be almost impossible to hear the clock strike four or five squares away. We have already heard several gentlemen express their willingness to subscribe towards purchasing a new one.

Work on the reservoir has not yet been resumed. The contract was let in Louisville on Thursday to Messrs. Shanks & Co., of that city, and it is to be hoped will soon be pushed to completion. In our last issue we made several errors in speaking of the matter, but it was owing to the fact that we were misinformed. The attachment of Messrs. C. R. Mason & Co. was but for $450, and was taken out before the death of Mr. Ward, one of the contractors, while the amount due the contractors was $4,250. This money had not been paid at that time to the surviving member of the firm of Snyder & Ward, who have been doing the work, not to his agent during his absence. All the money due not covered by attachments was paid over by the Company to Mr. J. T. Staten, agent for Mr. Snyder, yesterday morning, which enabled Mr. Staten to pay off the hands for the time he had guaranteed them their wages.

Mrs. W. J. Lewis and her sister, Miss Ella Wallace, started to this city from their home near Woodlawn, Tuesday morning, in a buggy, driving an old family horse that was considered safe. When about a half mile from home the horse fell down, thing he never did before, and in getting up he got one of the shafts between his forelegs, which caused him to rear and plunge and buck the buggy over a steep bank on the side of the road. Both ladies succeeded in getting out in time to save themselves injury but had their clothing badly torn. In its struggles to free itself the horse fell again with its head down the bank. In such a position it could not get up, and laid there until Miss Wallace ran a half mile to the shop of Mr. J. H. Burdin for assistance. The buggy was badly wrecked and the ladies so much frightened that they will hardly start out again without one of the male persuasion, no matter how safe the horse.

During the Lexington Fair next week, from Tuesday until Saturday inclusive, the freight train leaving here at 4:30, p. m. will have a passenger coach attached for the accommodation of those wishing to attend the Fair, and the freight train leaving Lexington at 7:45 p. m. and arriving at Frankfort at 10:30 p. m. will also carry a passenger coach attached between Lexington and this city for passengers returning from the Fair.

As he failed to give bond he was sent to jail.

The street committee has commenced the grading of Benson street to the river with the view of macadamizing the same so as to give egress to the water with the engines in case of fire, and also to furnish a suitable landing for the town. This is a very much needed improvement.

We notice with pleasure the letting of the Jacksonville and Frankfort turnpike. This should be bailed with delight by every citizen of the town, and should hasten to make liberal subscriptions to the same so as to ensure its early completion. The writer of this road was planned five years ago and I will say that Dave Moore has only been president about one month, and he has displayed more executive ability in that than than all the rest have in the five years.

There has been no revival of the school-house question for some time. Is the community dead on the subject of education? It is a shame that a town with 700 or 800 inhabitants and a hundred or more families of school age, could be so neglectful of its duty to posterity as to omit this all important matter. What say you? Let's have a town meeting to consider the subject.

"NICK."

Can B. Had if Wanted.

"Have you any malaria here?" asked a lady who was looking at a rural home for her family. "Well," said the landlady, "we don't get none just now; folks haven't asked for it, but we'll get it for your family if you want it." Most folks get malaria without wanting it. To get rid of its noxious effects, use Brown's Iron Bitters. Mrs. S. R. Mac-Donald, New Haven, Conn., says, "I suffered from malaria for nearly six years. Brown's Iron Bitters cured me completely."

Antioch

Cool enough for frost last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Martha Chisolm is lying very sick at her father's, Mr. Wish, Chisolm's, this week.

Mrs. Myrtle Firestone, who has been visiting relatives on Glens Creek, returned home yesterday week.

Mr. J. E. Glare and wife, Miss May Lee and Master George Glare, spent last Sunday with Mr. Newton Hulles and family.

Mrs. C. A. Wild, of Paris, Mrs. Belle Smith, of Belle Point, and Mrs. S. E. Stryers were the guests of Mr. Henry Spalding and family last Sunday.

Our school trustees did an act last week for which they deserve the thanks of this community in refusing to let the school children to one of these one-day magic lamps, which have become a nuisance and should be disconcerned. If all trustees should act as Mr. Henry Spalding did in this case they would soon put stop to such humbug.

The first two weeks of our school have been very successful, and much interest manifested. Now, why don't we keep up that interest? Patronize visit the school, get acquainted with your teacher, let her see that you are interested in your children's welfare and encourage her by your presence and good will. Stop that grumbling and let your children see that you have confidence in their teacher. Do this and your school will be a success.

Having nothing else to do, we conducted to make a trip to Bald Knob last Sunday, with a picnic. When we took "the Walkers line" for "the Knob" where we arrived about 10 a. m., and found several of our friends, among them our clever, whole-soul friend, Newt. Harrody ready and willing to wait on his customers. We had a good time with a good Mr. Syd. Hulles as our host, a No. 1 blacksmith and wagon shaper, with Mr. Utterback our foreman, and our friend, Dr. Robinson, in charge of the medical department. Shortly after our arrival Mr. George Harrody rode up from Louisville, with whom we were to stay this day and found him clever and jovial as ever. At the store we met with the celebrated hambrook and negro minstrel, Matt. Brooks, who regaled the crowd with music and singing. He gave a concert that night in the school-house. Matt. claims to have brought to Kentucky the first hambrook and negro minstrel (what a pity it had not been the last one.) After dinner we took the road back to Frankfort. At Mr. Riley Clarke's we came upon another crowd, among whom was Bob Sanford. Everybody knows Bob, so there is no use in telling him, (except we caught him hard at work, I think.) After dinner we took the road back to Frankfort. The next morning we went over to Bailey's mill, where we met Mr. Jimmie Williams, formerly of Frankfort. He is the same old Jimmie we knew in days gone by. After a long interval of the citizens we turned to Mr. Clay's, where we remained all night. Next morning we left "Walker's line" and accepted a seat in Mr. Harrody's vehicle for Frankfort, where we arrived at 9 a. m.

We were never more agreeably surprised than we were on this trip. We had heard so much about Bald Knob, that we had formed a very unfavorable opinion of the country. Instead of a rough, hilly, rockbound country we found farms well cultivated and everywhere the signs of thrift and industry, neat dwellings, some of them beautiful residences, and a clever, hospitable people, to welcome you to their hearts and homes. We also found a very nice, good looking widow that owned one of those pretty places, so we might have prolonged our stay among the Knobs. We regret also that we did not see our friend, "Jumbo."

Mr. Newt. Hulles has six acres of tobacco that will compare with any other crop of the weed in the country. It is said he can get $500 for it, as it stands in the patch. Who can beat it?

End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrington, Ill., says, "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklin's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklin's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by Joe LeCompte, 5
